- Things others do and information they provide about you. We also receive and analyze content, communications and information that other people provide when they use our Products.

Here's how:

We use the information we collect to deliver and improve on our Products, including to personalize features and content.

Law enforcement or legal requests.

We share information with law enforcement or in response to legal requests.

How can I manage or delete information about me?

We provide you or your administrator with the ability to access, edit, archive and erase your data.

We store data until it is no longer necessary to provide our services and Accolader Products, or until your account is deleted - whichever comes first. This is a case-by-case determination that depends on things like the nature of the data, why it is collected and processed, and relevant legal or operational retention needs.

When your administrator deletes your account, we delete things you have posted, such as awards and endorsements, and you won't be able to recover that information later. Information that others have shared about you isn't part of your account and won't be deleted. If you don't want to delete your account but want to temporarily stop using the Products, you or your administrator can archive your account instead.

How will we notify you of changes to this policy?

We'll notify you or your administrator of changes to this policy and provide the opportunity to review the revised policy before choosing to continue using our Products.
